

AFBM Journal is a registered publication of the AFBMNetwork and is on the Register of Refereed Journals maintained by the Commonwealth Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR), Higher Education Research Data Collection (HERDC).

AFBM Journal offers a publication venue for scientists working in the area of farm business management and the related areas of agricultural technology and farming systems.

The content focuses on areas of interest to farm business, farming systems and agricultural technology management professionals, including:

- livestock and cropping systems;
- farming, applied ecology and environmental management systems;
- farm economics and financial issues;
- global perspectives of farming;
- farm management and decision making;
- human and/or social issues facing farmers and farming communities;
- sustainable farming systems.

AFBM Journal is normally published twice annually and is distributed to AFBMNetwork members, as well as a range of educational and research organisations and libraries.

Papers relevant to the Journal's key areas of interest are welcome. Please contact the editors for advice initially and to submit your paper. Please refer to the instructions to authors for details on formatting requirements.

AFBM Journal is published online and is accessible free of charge.
